Single sign on iam – go to users add user—username as shailaja1 check on first check box and enter mail id name last name etc, then next —next—add user—then go to aws account on left side clikc on Shailaja Yadav below root—assign users and group click on users check on Shailaja then administrator access check on it next and submit—now mail will come confirm it will open in new page enter new password sign increated successfully will come then enter username created as shailaja1 and password new one – aws icon will come click on it management console click on it will open in new page and in right side administrator access comes click on it done with prac.